

Code of Conduct and Business Ethics

Code of Conduct and Business Ethics

Executive Summary

EcoWorld International Group of Companies, hereinafter referred to as EcoWorld is committed to maintaining a high standard of code of conduct and business ethics. The value of integrity is the cornerstone of this Code. Hence, everything in this Code is an expression of commitment to performance with integrity.

This Code serves as a road map to help guide actions and behaviors while working for and/ or dealing with EcoWorld. We expect and require each employee, as representative of EcoWorld, to also fulfill our commitment to good ethical behavior. Business representatives engaged to act on EcoWorld's behalf are also required to adhere to this Code and maintain high standards of conduct and business ethics.

EcoWorld conducts its business with honesty and integrity, and respect the integrity of persons with whom we do business. We are committed to fair and impartial practices and comply with the laws and regulations. The same principle applies to EcoWorld's business activities outside Malaysia. We shall, in each country where EcoWorld is active, abide by the laws of that country.

Acceptance of EcoWorld Code of Conduct & Business Ethics

The Link Between EcoWorld Guiding Values and Code of Conduct & Business Ethics

This diagram illustrates how this Code of Conduct and Business Ethics link to EcoWorld Guiding Values and EcoWorld Group policies and procedures. This means it has to be read in conjunction with these policies and procedures.

Fundamentally, all employees shall conduct themselves professionally following principles of fair play and based on agreed contractual obligations between dealing parties. Interest of the Group shall take precedence over that of the employee and other dealing party. As a matter of principle, all employees are not to place themselves in a position where their professionalism and integrity may be compromised.

1. Responsibility and Accountability

1.1. Employees

All employees are to comply with this Code. Ignorance of the existence of this Code will not be accepted as an excuse for its breach. Disciplinary action will be initiated against those who violate this Code. EcoWorld will require all employees to declare that they will abide by this Code and it's the responsibility of the employees to keep themselves abreast of the latest update of this Code.

1.2. Managers and Business Unit Heads

Managers and Business Unit Heads, as business leaders, have added responsibility to demonstrate exemplary conduct and act with integrity. Additionally, they are expected to and continuously promote high standards of conduct and business ethics amongst employees through, making ethical behavior a cornerstone of conduct at EcoWorld. EcoWorld encourages consultation when in doubt of this Code. Refer to No.15 Getting Help section.

1.3. Vendors, Suppliers and Contractors

EcoWorld also expects all vendors, suppliers, contractors and their respective subcontractors to comply with this Code in dealing with EcoWorld. Our selection must be based on the track records, quality of their products and services. Our relationship with them should be purely professional in order to maintain independence in our business judgment.

1.4. Interpretation of This Code

The Code of Conduct and Business Ethics cannot anticipate every situation that may arise in today's complex and dynamic business environment. Hence, where relevant, read this Code in conjunction with the relevant prevailing policies and procedures. Where any provision in this Code may be interpreted as differing from an applicable law, or other EcoWorld policy, the more stringent standard should prevail. In case of uncertainty, seek help and clarification before taking action. Refer to No.15 Getting Help section.

2. EcoWorld and Its People

2.1. EcoWorld's Commitment

- 2.1.1. EcoWorld is committed to treating everyone with respect and dignity, valuing individual and cultural differences. It empowers its people to use individual and collective capabilities to deliver quality product and services to both internal and external clients.

9. EcoWorld and Its Suppliers, Vendors, Contractors

9.1. Business Dealing With Others

9.1.1. In order to protect the interest of EcoWorld

- a) All business decisions are taken based on objective and independent judgment in the best interest of the Company, and must not be motivated by personal considerations or relationships, whether real or perceived.
- b) All business negotiations are on arms-length basis and EcoWorld adopts the principle of integrity and fairness in its business dealings and expect the other parties to reciprocate.
- c) Employees are prohibited from receiving any form of payments, gifts, favors, and entertainment that may compromise integrity, professional judgment or assessment of product, services, price and performance of our vendors, suppliers/ contractors.

- d) Soliciting and acceptance of bribes in any form or manner are serious misconduct which may result in termination of employment.

9.2. Conflict of Interest

- 9.2.1. Conflict is deemed to exist when an employee by virtue of holding a particular position causes him/her to obtain an improper gain or advantage, when such gain or advantage adversely affects EcoWorld's interest.
- 9.2.2. Employees should notify their Manager or Business Unit Head in writing immediately upon becoming aware of a conflict, whether real or perceived, either involving himself/herself, another employees or a third party. For example, an employee must notify his/her Business Unit Head if his family member has any business dealings with EcoWorld.

9.3. Receiving and Giving Business Courtesy

- 9.3.1. As a rule of thumb, no employee should accept gifts, the use of services or entertainment or gratuities given by third parties having business dealings with EcoWorld as this may compromise our integrity or affect our professional judgment in discharging our full responsibilities to the Company. This includes items such as meals and beverages, travel and accommodation, tickets to sporting and cultural events, discounts not available to the general public etc.
- 9.3.2. Under no circumstances is it acceptable to offer, give, solicit, or receive any form of bribe, kickback or gratuities. This applies to all Company transactions, even where the practice is widely considered as "a way of doing business".
- 9.3.3. Exception to 9.3.1 above applies to festive seasons or special occasions, subject to Business Unit Head/General Manager endorsement and CEO's approval, whereby distribution of such gifts to business associates are customary.

9.4. Purchasing and Procurement

9.4.1. Acting in the best interest of EcoWorld

- a) All procurement and purchasing decisions should be based solely on the Company's best interest, covering product or services suitability, price, delivery and quality. Due considerations should be given to
 - i. Treating all suppliers, contractors or service providers fairly.
 - ii. Confidentiality by ensuring that no information is disclosed during the bidding process.
 - iii. More than 1 supplier, service provider or contractor.

- iv. Check and balance amongst employees.
 - v. Other operational considerations as advised by the respective business units.
- b) All procurement or purchasing agreements should document services or products to be provided with specific deliverable milestones to enable independent verification when need arises.

9.4.2. Commitment on behalf of EcoWorld

- (a) All monetary commitments should be approved according to the approved limits of Authority.
- (b) Authorization and approval of the budget or operating plan is not equivalent to authorization to spend the money. Approval to incur the expenditure is still required even though it is budgeted for.
- (c) No employee is allowed to –
 - i. Approve own claims or expenses for payment.
 - ii. Approve a requisition, place an order, receive goods and approve invoice for payment by him or herself.
 - iii. Breakdown the total value of the procurement into multiple purchases requisitions to evade limits established by management.

9.4.3. Business Unit Heads can only delegate their limit of Authority to their subordinates. Such delegation must be task specific and the Business Unit Heads remain accountable for the delegated task.

9.4.4. Commitment by Resigned Employees and Consultants

An employee who is serving resignation notice, consultant, part-time/temporary employees are not allowed to make any commitments on behalf of the Company, unless written permission is given.
