The Link between EcoWorld’s Guiding Values and Code of Conduct and Business Ethics

This diagram illustrates how this Code links to EcoWorld’s Guiding Values and EcoWorld’s Group policies and procedures. This means it has to be read in conjunction with these policies and procedures.

Fundamentally, we shall conduct ourselves professionally following principles of fair play, based on agreed contractual obligations with third parties. Interest of the Group shall take precedence over that of the Director, employee and other third parties. As a matter of principle, we are not to place ourselves in a position where our professionalism and integrity may be compromised.

1 Responsibility and Accountability

Disciplinary action will be initiated against those who violate this Code. We will declare that we have read and will abide by this Code and it is our responsibility to keep ourselves abreast of the latest update of this Code, from time to time.

1.2 Managers and Business Unit Heads

Our selection must be based on the track records, quality of their products and services. Our relationship with them should be purely professional in order to maintain independence in our business judgments.

1.4 Interpretation of This Code

This Code cannot anticipate every situation that may arise in today's complex and dynamic business environment. Hence, where relevant, this Code must be read in conjunction with EcoWorld's Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption Policy ("ABC Policy") and other relevant prevailing policies and procedures. Where provisions in this Code are in conflict or inconsistent with any applicable laws or EcoWorld's policy, the stricter provisions will prevail. In case of uncertainty, seek help and clarification before taking action. Refer to No. 15 Getting Help section.
